

Get the Cookie, Paco: Valuable Lessons in Leadership from My Dogs

By Andrew P. Kruger

Middleton Stout Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 326 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. To date, most of the discourse revolving around leadership has either been too superficial to be useful or far too academic and dry to appeal and make sense to the general public. Bringing the most important findings from leadership studies and presenting their key lessons and concepts in an approachable and enjoyable format, Andrew Krüger's debut changes that paradigm forever. While it can be characterized as fifty-one practical ways you can increase your leadership ability at home or in the office, Krüger's book is much more than that. Using the behavior of his two dogs to make sophisticated concepts more readily understood and memorable, he displays a multitude of cogent points such as leaders must act without knowing all the information, leaders are aware of their strengths and limitations and use them effectively and efficiently, as well as lessons including personal resilience, emotional intelligence, and fear-based leading versus love-based leading. The concepts are broken down into five key categories to further delineate and underscore the importance of the overall framework of a leader: working on yourself, working with others, reading others, leading others, and the bigger picture....
